

NEWSLETTER of the EESRASSW

18.01.2010 (1/2010)

www.eesrassw.net

A recent event organized by one of the members of the EESRASSW
(INDOSOW Conference, Ljubljana, September 2009)

Dear colleagues and friends!

We are happy to present you with the first Newsletter of the Eastern-European Sub-Regional Association of the IASSW. With the Newsletter you will occasionally be informed of the latest events, calls, invitations, research projects, information etc. that are of interest to the EESRASSW members or that the EESRASSW members would like to transfer to others.

WELCOME!

EESrASSW

INVITATION FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

Dear members of the EESRASSW!

We are kindly inviting you to send us (ana.sobocan@fsd.uni-lj.si) all the information, calls for conferences and papers, notices on events, photographs, developments, or any other material that you would like to share with other members and users of our EESrASSW webpage. We would like to post your information in the News section of the page (www.eesrassw.net) and publish them in our Newsletter.

By this exchange of information we would like to foster cooperation, networking, development and mutual support.

Also, please share all the documents that the international public would benefit from: your articles, research reports, codes of ethics etc. – in any of the language they may exist!
By this we can encourage referencing and enhance knowledge.

2010 AGENDA BUILDING

International Association of Schools of Social Work invites you to share your opinions and build together a global AGENDA FOR ACTION FOR SOCIAL WORK AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT.

PLEASE TAKE PART IN THE AGENDA BUILDING AND RESPOND TO THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

1. What are the main challenges, issues, themes and dilemmas facing your country or your community in this coming decade?
2. What are the challenges for social work education and practice resulting from these social challenges?
3. What are the main challenges for your region for the next 5 years?

Please, help build an agenda for action in social work and social development by answering to this 3 questions and send the answers to EESrASSW (ana.sobocan@fsd.uni-lj.si) by the end of January. The answers will be anonymously transferred to the IASSW as a report on the agenda of the Eastern-European region. This is our chance to contribute to building a global agenda and inform the global public on our specific issues and goals.

INTERNATIONAL DEFINITION OF SOCIAL WORK - REVIEW

European Association of Schools of Social Work invites us to take part in the digital survey on the DEFINITION OF SOCIAL WORK. The current definition has been in use for ten years, and it might change. It takes only 20 minutes to fill out the survey, but this is a chance to give our opinions about the definition of social work. YOUR OPINION MATTERS!

PLEASE TAKE PART IN THE DIGITAL SURVEY!

You can find all the information on: www.eassw.org
You can see the survey at www.eassw.org (in English, Français, Espagnol or Italiano). To fill out the digital survey, one needs to get a password from liesbet.lommelen@khk.be. The survey is then filled out at: <http://rheia.khk.be>.

16.3.2010

WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY

16. 3. 2010 IS WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY!

The motto of this year's World Social Work Day is: MAKING HUMAN RIGHTS REAL – the SOCIAL WORK AGENDA.
World social work day is a celebration of the efforts of people striving for a better quality of life and of social workers' role in that.

Make 16.3.2010 a day that commemorates this celebration!
Organize an event at your university or in your community; make an exhibition of projects your students are involved in; invite people to discuss what social work is today!

PLEASE SEND US INFORMATION, PHOTOS, DOCUMENTS, INVITATIONS, REPORTS ON HOW YOU/YOUR SCHOOL HAVE CELEBRATED THIS IMPORTANT DAY!

We will publish the contributions on the website, and show how very active the schools in Eastern Europe really are! Social work matters!

Faculty of Social Work, University of Ljubljana, Slovenia is organising an International Symposium with a title Crossing the borders in social work: internationalism in social work education and research that will be held on 22nd April 2010 as part of the 4th Congress of Social Work.

2010 is a European year of the fight against poverty and social exclusion and we want to explore how international social work programmes and projects contribute to that. You can find more information on the symposium at the web page:

<http://www.fsd.si/congress/themes/#thema6>

The deadline for paper submission for symposium is 28th February 2010. Papers can be submitted on-line:

http://www.fsd.si/congress/registration with contribution/

During 22nd April 2010 a meeting of the members of the EEsrASSW, present at the symposium will be organized.

KINDLY INVITED TO SLOVENIA!
